David Lisle Chase FCCA, CA, TEP

Biographical Information

Lisle Chase is a Chartered Accountant who has been in public practice in St. Lucia and the islands of the OECS for over thirty years. Born in Jamaica, he is also a citizen of St. Lucia, having emigrated in 1963. Mr. Chase qualified in 1979, having trained with the firms of Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co. and Coopers & Lybrand. He was admitted to partnership in Coopers & Lybrand in 1984 as a regional partner in the practice covering Barbados and the Eastern Caribbean with specific responsibility for the Saint Lucia office, a position that he held until March 1998. At the end of March, 1998, Mr. Chase became the managing partner of the firm of Chase, Skeete & Boland, Chartered Accountants, a member firm of Pannell Kerr Forster, representing Arthur Andersen in Saint Lucia until that firm was dissolved.

Mr. Chase retired from the firm and commenced employment with Financial Centre Corporation, in September 1999 as President and C.E.O., with a mandate to establish the international financial services industry in partnership with the government of Saint Lucia. He maintains a small public accounting practice for select clients, practicing in the areas of tax advisory services, business advisory services; executorships, receiverships and trustee services.

Continuing professional development remains a priority and Mr. Chase keeps current with developments in the financial services industry by attending continuing professional development courses every year as well as attending international tax and insurance conferences every year. He is an active member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP), an internationally recognised body of qualified professionals.

Mr. Chase has served on a number of Cabinet appointed Boards and commissions in the public interest. He also served as the Chairman of the National Development Corporation (1994 to 1997) and as a member of the Saint
