

SECURITIES ACT 2001

SECURITIES (REGISTRATION STATEMENT) RULES

No. 2 OF 2008

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on it by sections 97, 161 and 162 of the Securities Act 2001, the Commission makes the following procedural rules and specifies the form of the registration statement.

CITATION AND COMMENCEMENT

1. These rules may be cited as the Securities (Registration Statement) Rules and shall come into force on the date issued by the Commission.

INTERPRETATION

2. In these rules:

'Commission' means the Eastern Caribbean Securities Regulatory Commission

'Reporting Issuer' refers to reporting issuers as described in section 97 of the Securities Act.

'Securities Act' means the Securities Act 2001.

REPORTING ISSUERS

- (a) Reporting issuers are required to register with the Commission in accordance with s.97(2) of the Securities Act 2001.
- (b) Reporting issuers incorporated subsequent to the prescribed time must register with the Commission within ninety (90) days of the date of incorporation.

REGISTRATION STATEMENT

3. It is unlawful for any person to issue securities unless a registration statement in the form prescribed in the schedule has been filed with the Commission along with the fee payable under the Securities (Licences and Fees) Regulations, and has been approved by the Commission.

4. Registration statements must be updated annually in accordance with s.97(4) of the Securities Act 2001.
5. For the “initial registration” of a company, the following documents shall accompany the registration statement:
 - (a) Formation documents (Memorandum and/or Articles of Association and/or By-laws of the reporting issuer)
 - (b) Certificate of Incorporation
 - (c) Audited financial statements for the past three (3) financial years or from incorporation, whichever is shorter.
 - (d) Year to date unaudited financial statements
 - (e) Prospectus
6. Any statement contained in the registration statement or accompanying documents which is false or misleading or which the reporting issuer has reasonable grounds to believe is false or misleading or which, by reason of the omission of some fact or other information, is rendered false or misleading is a contravention of section 121 of the Securities Act 2001.
7. The registration statement along with accompanying documentation must be filed with the Commission at its address:

The Secretary
Eastern Caribbean Securities Regulatory Commission
ECCB Financial Complex
P O Box 1855
Basseterre
St Kitts
8. The Securities (Registration Statement) Rules No. 2 of 2002 is repealed.

1. Description of the Industry in which the Company Operates

Grenreal Property Corporation Limited (the "Company") has been specifically set up to enable local and regional private, professional and institutional investors to benefit from the positive effects on real estate market of the successful development of the cruise tourism in Grenada in particular and the development of Grenada as a tourist destination in general.

The Company is the owner of two completed properties located on the reclaimed land of the St. George's New Cruise Port, the "Esplanade Mall" and the "Dr. Jan Bosch Building".

The two properties are rented to third parties and have very low vacancies. The combined value of the two buildings is approximately EC$57.9 million. The Company intends to increase its real estate portfolio by acquiring new properties, although there are no immediate acquisitions planned.

The Company has an equity value of over EC$18.1 million and is presently owned by private as well as public entities. The Company wishes to extend its shareholder base and therefore listed its shares at the Eastern Caribbean Securities Exchange in St. Kitts and Nevis in July 2008.
