Horsford's has employed and will continue to employ traditional marketing strategies including advertising through the mediums of Broadcasting and Print. The broadcast medium has been penetrated quite significantly and has become a common medium of advertising for the corporate community. However there are still aspects of the broadcast media that is underutilized that our company will venture to exploit in the future.

The medium of local television broadcast has been underdeveloped however with the re-introduction by the Cable Company of advertising spots on cable channels including CNN and the USA network there is significant possibilities to be explored. This avenue of advertising will significantly enhance and propel our marketing thrust. The increased use of television broadcast will help to advance and improve our presence in the local market. The use of internet technology in our marketing is relatively new, however with the launching of horsfords.com the possibilities are endless. Increasing the visual presence of the company through television and print ads in addition to banners, signs etc will enhance the company's market presence.

Number of Directors: 7

If Directors are not elected annually, or are elected under a voting trust or other arrangement, explain:

The provision of Articles 102 and 103 of the Articles of Association states that not more than one-third of the Directors should retire annually. Therefore each year Directors are elected at the Annual General Meeting in accordance with Articles 102 and 103.

1. Summarise Articles of Association or Bylaws which are relevant to Directors

(1) Non-Executive Directors retire on rotation annually.

(2) Retiring Directors may offer themselves for re-election.

(3) Not more than one-third of the Directors retire at any one time.

(4) The Executive Directors do not retire on rotation

(5) There shall be a minimum of five directors

(6) Directors are appointed by ordinary resolution at a general meeting

(7) No person other than a Director retiring at the meeting shall be appointed a director at a general meeting unless he is recommended by the directors or notice is given to Company not less than 14 nor more than 35 clear days of the intention.

(8) The directors may appoint a person to act as a director until the next annual general meeting.

(9) A director ceases to be a director if he is prohibited by law, or becomes bankrupt, or resigns his office by notice to the Company, or has been absent for more than six consecutive months without permission of the directors from meetings of directors and the directors resolved that his office be vacated or the Company so resolves by ordinary resolution.

(10) Directors are entitled to remunerations as the Board determines

AGM – 14 June 2007
- (b) If the meeting involved the election of directors, the name of each director elected at the meeting and the name of each director whose term of office as a director continued after the meeting.

At the Annual General Meeting held on 14 June 2007 the following directors were re-elected:

- (1) Mr. Mark Wilkin and Mr. Calvin Wilkin retire on rotation and were re-elected directors.
- (2) Mr. Victor Williams and Mr. Anthony Gonsalves were elected directors

Other Directors

W. Anthony Kelsick (Managing), Donald Kelsick, Christopher Martin, and Malcolm Kirwan

PART XII

LITIGATION

1. Describe any past, pending or threatened litigation or administrative action which has had or may have a material effect upon the company's business, financial condition, or operations, including any litigation or action involving the company's Officers, Directors or other key personnel. State the names of the principal parties, the nature and current status of the matters, and amounts involved. Give an evaluation by management or counsel, to the extent feasible, of the merits of the proceedings or litigation and the potential impact on the company's business, financial condition, or operations.

There were no claims pending against the Company

PART XIII

MISCELLANEOUS FACTORS

1. Describe any other material factors, either adverse or favourable, that will or could affect the company or its business (for example, outline any defaults under major contracts, any breach of by-law provisions, etc.). Include any details which are necessary to clarify any potentially misleading or incomplete information in this Registration Statement.

Not applicable

PART XIV

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Attach Auditor's Report. Attach current audited financial statements, audited financial statements for the last three financial years and the most recent unaudited financial statement if next audited statement is due in less than six months; or the most recent unaudited quarterly statement if the next audited statement is due in more than six months, or pro-forma financial statements, whichever is applicable. If the company has acquired another business since the beginning of the last financial year the assets or net income of which were in excess of 20% of those for the company, show pro-forma combined financial statements as if the acquisition had occurred at the beginning of the company's last financial year.

PART XV

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF CERTAIN RELEVANT FACTORS

1. If the company's financial statements show losses from operations, explain the causes underlying these losses and what steps the company has taken or is taking to address these causes.

There were no losses for the year ended 30 September 2007.

2. Describe any trends in the company's historical operating results. Indicate any changes now occurring in the underlying economics of the industry or the company's business, which, in the opinion of Management, will have a significant impact (either favourable or adverse) upon the company's results of operations within the next 12 months. Give a rough estimate of the probable extent of the impact, if possible.

The results for 2007 have shown significant improvements over 2006 and have added to the recent years of profit growth. This profitability is as a result of a strong economy led by the construction sector.

The outlook for 2008 is for further improvement in profitability as the construction sector remains strong. In addition, there are indications of sustained profitability of the Company's associated companies. There are no foreseeable risks or threats to the economy for the remaining months of fiscal 2008.

PART XVI
